

Letters to Families (LFFs) are written to the whole College community, a year group or a special interest group. Letters written to the whole College community are written to all parents and carers of students at Mercedes College.